

NADCO hosts Lender's Web Conference

Sturtevant, Wisconsin – March 11, 2010 – National Association of Development Companies (NADCO) recently hosted a web conference focusing on SBA 504 Loans. The webinar was designed to familiarize lenders with the SBA 504 program and show how the program can benefit both small business borrowers as well as community lenders.

The webinar, entitled “SBA 504 Loans-An Important Economic Tool for Community Lenders” obtained over 400 registrations. Although registration was limited, the web conference had over 860 participants with 80% of the participants being lenders.

NADCO is the trade association for certified development companies (CDC). CDC's are companies that are certified by SBA (Small Business Administration) to provide financing for small businesses under the SBA 504 program. NADCO assists SBA and other federal agency partners by providing information on federal regulations through various joint web conferences or webinars. Business Lending Partners has been a certified development company since 1985.

To view NADCO's most recent webinar please click the link below:

http://nadco.org/files/public/webinarpostings/504\_Community\_Lender\_Web\_Conference\_Powerpoint.pdf

Additionally, the web conference yielded questions that were not specifically outlined by NADCO during the presentation. To view an outline of these questions and answers, please click the following link.

<http://www.nadco.org/files/public/Q&ALenderWebConf.pdf>

###